

Cultural Immersion Project – Part 3 Paper Instructions

Individual Encounter and Synthesis

You will conduct an in-depth, 1-hour interview with an individual or married couple from your selected cultural group in order to develop an understanding of the cultural factors that helped shape that individual's or couple's cultural identity.

A variety of issues may be explored in the interview. The knowledge you gained from both parts of the Cultural Immersion Project as well as your sense of the person/couple you interview will guide you in how personal you can get with your questions. Cultural groups and individuals vary on how private they are. Use their feedback regarding what areas you can probe. If the person is very open, go deeper. If not, respect that cultural boundary and ask yourself why that boundary is there. Issues that you may wish to explore during the interview include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Early childhood experiences and parental values;
- Earliest memories of recognizing membership in a culturally different group;
- The role of religion/spirituality;
- Immigration experiences;
- Similarities/differences between couples' interactions in the U.S. to couples' interactions in the individual's culture;
- School experiences as a member of a cultural minority;
