

Challenging Myself to Stand Up for Myself

When someone says something to me that makes me feel bad, I should stand up for myself. I should tell them how I feel and what they did wrong. I should not let them talk to me like that. I should not let them bully me. I should not let them take advantage of me. I should not let them disrespect me. I should not let them treat me unfairly. I should not let them hurt me. I should not let them scare me. I should not let them control me. I should not let them make me feel like I am not important. I should not let them make me feel like I am not valued. I should not let them make me feel like I am not respected. I should not let them make me feel like I am not heard. I should not let them make me feel like I am not listened to. I should not let them make me feel like I am not taken seriously. I should not let them make me feel like I am not valued. I should not let them make me feel like I am not respected. I should not let them make me feel like I am not heard. I should not let them make me feel like I am not listened to. I should not let them make me feel like I am not taken seriously.
