One of the primary and significant tasks performed by those who must interpret and apply the law is the conveyancing process. Conveyancing involves the law, namely, all of legislation, custom and tradition applied to such the subject of transferring property from one party to another.

Acting Parties in Law

In law, the parties of a conveyancing transaction are those who are involved in the process. They are all individuals, whether they be individuals or legal entities, such as corporations, partnerships or trusts. Individuals of Indian and other nationalities, if subject to Indian law, are considered to be parties to a conveyancing transaction.

It is important to note the conveyancing process is a legal activity involving individuals.
