Contextual Theology and Revolutionary Transformation in Latin America Angel D. Santiago-Vendrell,2010-06-01 U S audiences know Latin American liberation theologies largely through translations of Latin American Catholics from the 1970s and beyond Most of the few known Protestant authors were students of Richard Shaull whose critical thinking on social change prophetic Christianity and dialogue with Marxism and Christian use of Marxist analysis precedes the emergence of the formal schools of liberation theology by two decades His own education at Princeton and the education he provided in Brazil charts the course of Protestant influences into this stream of theological reflection that became a global phenomenon in the latter decades of the twentieth century Also Shaull s career roughly parallels the emergence of the World Council of Churches and the engagement of the Catholic Church in Latin America and around the world after the Second Vatican Council He himself was engaged and became the flash point in some of the major conferences movements and institutions of the 1960s and beyond Santiago Vendrell documents the entrance of the ecumenical movement in Brazil among the most dramatic transformations in Catholic Protestant relations around the globe as well as Shaull s role in that development Along the way he notes Shaull s prophetic and destabilizing role in the worldwide student movement in the 60s and 70s charting decisions that mark the ecumenical movement Shaull s contributions are important for an understanding of the ethical debates in the worldwide ecumenical Protestant and Orthodox communities Santiago Vendrell examines primary secondary and historical documents that shine a light on Shaull s transformation into a contextual theologian of the poor He offers a definitive view of this North American Protestant missionary who wrote extensively on Latin American liberation theology the base Christian communities and how conversion to solidarity with the poor offers transforming possibilities for the mainline churches theological identity and practical faith True Latter-Day Saints' Herald ,1942 The family magazine of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Music News ,1925 Michigan Christian Advocate ,1924

Adventure in Faith Robert Andrew Baker,Paul J. Craven,1982 Manuscript by Robert Baker on the history of the First Baptist Church of Charleston South Carolina The book was published by Broadman Press in 1982 and jointly authored by Paul Craven North-western Christian Advocate ,1919 Herald of Gospel Liberty Elias Smith,1914
