Decision Analysis Journal:

Advances in Decision Analysis Nadine Meskens, M.R. Roubens, 2013-03-09 The present book finds its roots in the International Conference on Methods and Applications of Multiple Criteria Decision Making held in Mons in May 1997. A small number of contributions to that conference were selected via a refereeing procedure and retained authors were requested to include in their final version their more recent results. This explains why some papers differ significantly from the original presentation. The introductory paper of Raynaud addresses the long range forecasts in Multiple Criteria Decision Making on the basis of a Delphi process that was run before and during the congress. In a second part the French author explains how he and some of his partners could find the proof of an important conjecture: the iteration of a strongly monotonic choice function is not a strongly monotonic ranking function. The second part of the book covers methodological aspects of decision theory. The contribution of Bouyssou and Pirlot concerns the reformulation of classical conjoint measurement models that induce a complete and transitive preference binary relation on the set of alternatives which seem to be unrealistic when decision makers are asked to compare objects evaluated on several attributes. The authors propose to consider non transitive, non complete and non additive decomposable conjoint models. They define properties that characterize such models.

Multiple Criteria Decision Analysis: State of the Art Surveys Salvatore Greco, 2006-01-20 Multiple Criteria Decision Analysis: State of the Art Surveys provides survey articles and references of the seminal or state of the art research on MCDA. The material covered ranges from the foundations of MCDA over various MCDA methodologies, outranking methods, multiattribute utility and value theories, non classical approaches to multiobjective mathematical programming, MCDA applications and software. This vast amount of material is organized in 8 parts with a total of 25 chapters. More than 2000 references are listed.

Decision Analysis, 2004 Multicriteria Decision Analysis in Geographic Information Science Jacek Malczewski, Claus Rinner, 2015-02-02 This book is intended for the GIS Science and Decision Science communities. It is primarily targeted at postgraduate students and practitioners in GIS and urban regional and environmental planning as well as applied decision analysis. It is also suitable for those studying and working with spatial decision support systems. The main objectives of this book are to effectively integrate Multicriteria Decision Analysis (MCDA) into Geographic Information Science (GIScience) to provide a comprehensive account of theories, methods, technologies and tools for tackling spatial decision problems and to demonstrate how the GIS MCDA approaches can be used in a wide range of planning and management situations.

Advances in Decision Analysis Ward Edwards, Ralph F. Miles Jr., Detlof von Winterfeldt, 2007-07-30 By framing issues, identifying risks, eliciting stakeholder preferences and suggesting alternative approaches, decision analysts can offer workable solutions in domains such as the environment, health and medicine, engineering and operations research and public policy. This book reviews and extends the material typically presented in introductory texts. Not a single book covers the broad scope of decision analysis at this advanced level. It will be a valuable resource for academics and students in decision analysis as well as decision analysts and managers

Decision Analysis for Program Evaluators Gordon F. Pitz, Jack McKillip, 1984-09 Programme evaluation covers a wide range of decision making activities from problem conceptualization through to integration of information In addition the results of evaluation activities are closely connected with the need to make decisions and formulate policy This book shows how decision analysis can be used as part of the process of need assessment outcome evaluation and policy analysis
