1914 Oeser 140 Dubliners contains 15 tales Oeser 67 Joyce died in 1941 in Z rich Oeser 143 Araby is the third story of the Dubliners Collins 93 It is about a boy who lives in Dublin The boy lives in an old house and he loves the girl who lives opposite the street His behaviour can be characterized as a kind of obsession because he observes the girl every day from his window One day she asks him if he goes to the bazar which is called Araby A few days later he visits the bazar but this leads to a big disappointment because the market closes when he is there The story shows by using different symbols that the boy loves the girl or even more he is obsessed but the story not a happy end and finishes with the disappointment at the market The act of disappointment is not just a tragic ending of a love story It makes his puberty visible as well because lots of people fell in love when they are getting older and become adolescents It is also necessary to point out that most of these stories do not have a happy end in reality and in metafiction as well
