Process Engineering Renewal 1 Éric Schaer, Jean-Claude André, 2020-06-16 Process engineering emerged at the beginning of the 20th Century and has become an essential scientific discipline for the matter and energy processing industries Its success is incontrovertible with the exponential increase in techniques and innovations Rapid advances in new technologies such as artificial intelligence as well as current societal needs sustainable development climate change renewable energy the environment are developments that must be taken into account in industrial renewal Process Engineering Renewal 1 the first volume of three focuses on training demonstrating the need for innovation in order for the field to have a framework that is sustainable in a highly changeable world Fees Must Fall Susan Booyesen, 2016-10-01 This book explores the student discontent a year after the start of the 2015 South African FeesMustFall revolt FeesMustFall the student revolt that began in October 2015 was an uprising against lack of access to and financial exclusion from higher education in South Africa More broadly it radically questioned the socio political dispensation resulting from the 1994 social pact between big business the ruling elite and the liberation movement The 2015 revolt links to national and international youth struggles of the recent past and is informed by black consciousness politics and social movements of the international left Yet its objectives are more complex than those of earlier struggles The student movement has challenged the hierarchical top down leadership system of university management and it s double speak of professing to act in workers and students interests yet entrenching a regressive system for control and governance University managements while on one level amenable to change have also co opted students into their ranks to create co responsibility for the highly bureaucratised university financial aid that stands in the way of their social revolution This book maps the contours of student discontent a year after the start of the FeesMustFall revolt Student voices dissect colonialism improper compromises by the founders of democratic South Africa feminism worker rights and meaningful education In depth assessments by prominent scholars reflect on the complexities of student activism its impact on national and university governance and offer provocative analyses of the power of the revolt The Transformative Power of Language Russell H. Kaschula, H. Ekkehard Wolff, 2020-09-10 Language has played a pivotal role in societal transformation in postcolonial Africa towards the creation of globally competitive knowledge societies however so far this role has been under researched and under estimated This volume addresses this gap in the literature by bringing together a team of globally recognised scholars to explore the effect of language on African postcolonial societies and how it has contributed to achieving mental decolonisation A range of languages are explored both imported ex colonial and indigenous African and case studies from different spheres of public discourse are investigated from universities to legal settings Demonstrating that multilingualism is a resource for rather than barrier to successful transformation this book brings the intellectualisation and institutionalisation of African languages to the forefront of development discourse and provides an insightful snap shot of how current academic research public discourse political activism and social community engagement have contributed to societal transformation in South Africa

Technical and Vocational Teaching in South Africa Reuben Dlamini, Ian Moll, Vasidevan Naiker, 2024-07-23 This book unpacks the notion of pedagogy in South African technical and vocational education and training TVET enhancing the importance of the psychological dimension of learning The book is premised on the idea that as stories of actual grounded teaching and learning practices emerge from South African colleges a coherent picture of pedagogy can be established With chapters by practising TVET educators writing about their own work the volume seeks to reconceptualise vocational teaching and learning processes with diversity and inclusivity in mind The book will be of interest to students and scholars of TVET and education in South Africa as well as South African college practitioners and policymakers
