Language and communication

Sonja Narunsky-Laden and Konosoang Sobane

OVERVIEW

If you talk to a man in a language he understands, that goes to his head. If you talk to him in his language, that goes to his heart. – Nelson Mandela

Multilingualism is a resource. No one knows this better than Africans do. The uses of one's own mother tongue are characterised by deep understanding, richness of speech forms and metaphor, familiar concepts. Uses of other languages permit communication with others, broadened access to knowledge outside one's own cultural milieu and participation in civic entities beyond one's own community. Multilingualism contributes to the reinforcement of one's own, local identity in order to permit healthy engagement with the rest of the world; in fact that is its primary advantage relative to globalisation. – Barbara Trudell (2009)
