She remembers the events of the day She had heard a skittering sound in her attic and gone to town to talk to an exterminator The exterminator had referred her to a roofing guy The roofer had inspected the attic and let her know that she had a racoon in her attic as well as a hole in her flashing The roofer baited a trap and put it up in the attic Lying in the darkness alone Rebecca realizes that the sounds she has mistaken for gunshots are actually the sounds of the racoon thrashing around overhead in the trap Rebecca wonders how she wound up there How She Wound Up There The Inspirational Version Two months before her sixtieth birthday Rebecca won the prestigious J P Bradley Prize for an artist whose body of work illuminated the human condition Rebecca is a photographer and the first female and youngest winner of the prize She feels that her heyday was over once she won the award She had known for a while that her popularity was declining based upon the reduced royalty checks and fewer invitations and reactions when she introduced herself Her agent Tori Grzyjk was scouting new talent and Rebecca knew that she had become old talent Rebecca s actual prize was a painting of a red barn and 1 000 She was very happy to win the money On her way to the restroom that evening she had seen an index card on the bulletin board for a charming country cottage for rent She calculated her expenses the next morning and determined that if she rented out her apartment in New York she would be able to afford the cottage pay her mother s nursing home fees her father s rent and her health insurance premiums She might even have some money left over to put away for emergencies and retirement She also figured that living in a quaint country cottage would inspire her Changes of scenery always inspired people and everyone was waiting for her to be inspired again

Elizabeth Bishop's Prosaic Vidyan Ravinthiran, 2015-07-01 Elizabeth Bishop is now recognized as one of the greatest poets of the twentieth century a uniquely cosmopolitan writer with connections to the US Canada Brazil and also the UK given her neglected borrowings from many English authors and her strong influence on modern British verse Yet the dominant biographical psychoanalytical approach leaves her style relatively untouched and it is vital that an increasing focus on archival material does not replace our attention to the writing itself Bishop s verse is often compared with prose sometimes insultingly writing fiction she worried she was really writing poems But what truly is the difference between poetry and prose structurally conceptually historically speaking Is prose simply formalized speech or does it have rhythms of its own Ravinthiran seeks an answer to this question through close analysis of Bishop s prose like verse her literary prose her prose poems and her letter prose This title is a provocation It demands that we reconsider the pejorative quality of the word prosaic playing on mosaic Ravinthiran uses Bishop s thinking about prose to approach for the first time her work in multiple genres as a stylistic whole Elizabeth Bishop s Prosaic is concerned not only with her inimitable style but also larger questions to do with the Anglo American shift from closed to open forms in the twentieth century This study identifies not just borrowings from but rich intertextual relationships with writers as diverse as among others Gerard Manley Hopkins W H Auden Virginia Woolf Flannery O Connor and Dorothy Richardson Though Bishop criticized Woolf she in particular is treated as a central and thus far neglected precursor crucial to our understanding of Bishop as a feminist poet Finally the sustained discussion of how the history of prose frames effects of rhythm syntax and acoustic texture in both Bishop s prose proper and her prosaic verse extends a body of research which seeks now to treat literature as a form of cognition Technique and thought are finely wedded in Bishop s work her literary forms evince a historical intelligence attuned to questions of power nationality tradition both literary and otherwise race and gender
