Objective

This program will help you understand the consequences of a partnership's joint and several debts being levied for business-related debts.

Directions

After this program, you should be able to identify or describe the liability distribution of partnership debts.

Pro Rata Debts

John and Barbara are forming a partnership to sell furniture. Their partnership agreement states that if they acquire a car, they must use a bank loan. Payments on the loan will be made by the partnership. The agreement also states that if the partnership acquires a house, they must use a bank loan and the partnership will make payments on the loan. John and Barbara agree to share the partnership debts equally. Assume the bank loan for the car is $10,000 and the bank loan for the house is $20,000.

1. What is the total amount of the partnership's debts? How much of the debt is for the car? How much is for the house?
