Body #1 through Body #3	Sentence 1	Topic Sentence : One sentence identifying what your paragraph is going to be about. This sentence should use transitions such as, first, second, third, last, also, additionally, etc.
	Sentence 2-6	Details : Use these sentences to prove your point using specific details from the text. The more specific you can make it, the better. Use quotes, page numbers or examples from text.

Narrative as Writing and Literacy Pedagogy for Preservice Elementary Teachers

Nancy A. Wasser,2021-08-16 I just cannot write or I am not a good writer are familiar complaints from students in academia Many of them claim they cannot express themselves clearly in written text and their lack of this skill impedes them in their academic career In this book Nancy A Wasser argues that teachers can help solve this when they start viewing writing not as secondary to reading but as the equally important side of the same coin Those who cannot read will not be able to write Wasser explains how teaching and regular practicing of writing skills from an early age onwards helps children grow into students who are self aware of their voices By employing narrative as a process of learning to write and a way to read teachers can teach children the art of writing while also making children more aware of their own constructions of narrative Combining the focus on individual and group expression in writing lessons students can trace and reflect on their own life transformations through their writing process Good writers are not born that way but made through effort and practice Changes in curriculum may not only lead to better expressed citizens but also to more balance between teacher and children voices

Linguistic Rivalries

Sonia N. Das,2016-10-05 Linguistic Rivalries weaves together anthropological accounts of diaspora nation and empire to explore and analyze the multi faceted processes of globalization characterizing the migration and social integration experiences of Tamil speaking immigrants and refugees from India and Sri Lanka to Montr al Qu bec in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries In Montr al a city with more trilingual speakers than in any other North American city Tamil migrants draw on their multilingual repertoires to navigate longstanding linguistic rivalries between anglophone and francophone and Indian and Sri Lankan nationalist leaders by arguing that Indians speak Spoken Tamil and Sri Lankans speak Written Tamil as their respective heritage languages Drawing on ethnographic archival and linguistic methods to compare and contrast the communicative practices and language ideologies of Tamil heritage language learning in Hindu temples Catholic churches public schools and community centers

this book demonstrates how processes of sociolinguistic differentiation are mediated by ethnonational religious class racial and caste hierarchies Indian Tamils showcase their use of the cosmopolitan sounds and scripts of colloquial varieties of Tamil to enhance their geographic and social mobilities whereas Sri Lankan Tamils dispossessed of their homes by civil war instead emphasize the primordialist sounds and scripts of a pure literary Tamil to rebuild their homeland and launch a global critique of racism and environmental destruction from the diaspora This book uses the ethnographic and archival study of Tamil mobility and immobility to expose the mutual constitution of elite and non elite global modernities defined as language ideological projects in which migrants objectify dimensions of time and space through scalar metaphors
