The Army Officer's Guide Lawrence P. Crocker, 1979

Army Officer's Guide Lawrence P. Crocker, 1990

The

Army Officer's Guide Keith E. Bonn, 1999 This is the definitive guide to what the Army expects from its officers in leadership technical skills and character and what every officer junior or experienced needs to know to succeed in the Army of the 21st century It is packed full of information on regulations professional development academic opportunities organization and missions pay and benefits family services military courtesies and customs and professional and social life

The Chinese Army Today Dennis J. Blasko, 2013-06-17 The Chinese Army Today is a comprehensive study of the Chinese military examining its ground forces in a level of detail not found in any other contemporary works This new revised edition has been fully updated to take account of recent changes in the institution In 1999 the military modernization program of the Chinese People's Liberation Army increased in intensity and achieved a focus not seen in the previous two decades Based primarily on actual Chinese sources this book details these changes and puts them in the context of the many traditions that still remain Written by a retired professional military officer who has served in China the text uses first hand observation of the Chinese military and three decades of military experience to weave many disparate threads from official Chinese statements documents and media reports into an integrated whole The author also conducts an in depth exploration into the many forces that constitute the People's Liberation Army This is an essential book for all students of Chinese military and security affairs and highly recommended for students of Chinese Politics Asian Security and International Relations and Strategic Studies in general

Ride to the Sound of the Guns Ted Mataxis, 2025-08-15 I have read lots of leadership books but this one now goes to the top of the list for the Army officers that want to aspire to doing leadership and mentorship correctly They will also see what sacrifice and service to nation really looks like As I meet with those about to take command of Army units my 1 recommendation will be to read study and understand Ride to the Sound of the Guns Bryan Doug Brown General 7th Commander U S Special Operations Command An adrenaline junky Ted Mataxis was the perennial volunteer who saw action in World War II Korea and Vietnam After just three and a half years in the Army he was a battalion commander in brutal combat with the 2nd Battalion 276th Infantry Regiment 70th Infantry Division Trail Blazers during the last German offensive during the winter of 1944 In the spring of 1945 he participated in the breakthrough of the Siegfried Line and the subsequent pursuit into Bavaria Volunteering to go to the Pacific for the invasion of Japan he was en route when the atomic bombs were dropped He returned to Europe for occupation duty seeing the start of the Cold War in Berlin In 1950 he attended the Indian Army Staff College then served in Kashmir with the United Nation Peacekeeping Mission He then volunteered for the Korean War where he commanded a regiment at the age of 36 during the bitter campaigns of Triangle T Bone and Pork Chop Hills This was followed by an early tour in Vietnam as Senior Advisor to the ARVN Commanding General of II Corps for the 16 months that heralded the escalation of the fighting by the introduction of the regiments of the North Vietnamese regular army Upon the arrival of American troops in February 1966 he became the Deputy Commander of the 1st Brigade of the 101st Airborne Division After serving in Iran he volunteered to go to Vietnam for a second tour serving as Assistant Division Commander and then as Acting Division Commander In 1971 with one day s notice he was assigned as Chief of the Military Equipment Delivery Team for Cambodia MEDT C He retired from there in 1972 During the Soviet Afghan War he became the field representative coordinator for A Committee for a Free Afghanistan spending time behind the lines with the Mujahedeen where he was known as The Old American General who brought them Stinger Missiles When he became too old to run with the young dogs he finished out his years as a professor for American Military University sharing his experiences and mentoring young military personnel Russia's Army Roger R.
