Resources in Education, 1978-10 Illusions of Control Erica L. Gaston, 2024-08-06 Over the last two decades the United States has supported a range of militias rebels and other armed groups in Afghanistan Iraq and Syria Critics have argued that such partnerships have many perils from enabling human rights abuses to seeding future threats Policy makers however have sought to mitigate the risks of partnering with irregular armed groups Militia group leaders in far flung corners of these war torn countries were subjected to background checks and instructed about international law and human rights and their funding was cut when they crossed red lines To what extent have such mechanisms curbed the dangers of proxy warfare and what unforeseen consequences has this approach unleashed Drawing on a decade of field research and hundreds of interviews with stakeholders Erica L Gaston unpacks the dilemmas of attempting to control proxy forces She demonstrates that although the tools U S policy makers used to constrain partners behavior increased in number and sophistication they never fully addressed the range of political security and legal concerns surrounding these forces Moreover by shifting policy makers calculations the use of proxy forces introduced additional moral hazards and may have enabled riskier decision making Featuring substantial empirical detail and close analysis of key internal debates Illusions of Control offers new perspectives on some of the most significant and controversial elements of recent U S security policy In addition to nuanced insights about proxy relationships this book provides a novel analytical toolkit for exploring transnational bargaining and foreign policy deliberations in hybrid political environments Legal Resistance under Authoritarianism Yan-ho Lai, 2025-10-01 Legal Resistance Under Authoritarianism The Struggle for the Rule of Law in Hong Kong examines the decline of Hong Kong s rule of law under China s expanding authoritarian influence While the imposition of the National Security Law in 2020 is seen as a turning point this book argues that threats to Hong Kong s rule of law began with the 1997 sovereignty transfer Drawing on comprehensive fieldwork Yan ho Lai explores the tensions between legal profession political authorities and the state s broader authoritarian project between the 2014 Umbrella Movement and the 2019 Anti extradition Bill Movement Highlighting resistance strategies employed by a critical minority of legal professionals Lai reveals how their efforts played a crucial role in countering state encroachment A compelling study of legal transplantation legal resistance and the rule of law this book sheds light on China s influence beyond its jurisdiction and Hong Kong s uniqueness in global anti authoritarian struggles Transnational Feminist Perspectives on Terror in Literature and Culture Basuli Deb, 2014-11-13 This book offers a transnational feminist response to the gender politics of torture and terror from the viewpoint of populations of color who have come to be associated with acts of terror Using the War on Terror in Afghanistan and Iraq this book revisits other such racialized wars in Palestine Guatemala India Algeria and South Africa It draws widely on postcolonial literature photography films music interdisciplinary arts media new media and activism joining the larger conversation about human rights by addressing the problem of a pervasive public misunderstanding of terrorism conditioned

by a foreign and domestic policy perspective Deb provides an alternative understanding of terrorism as revolutionary dissent against injustice through a postcolonial transnational lens The volume brings counter terror narratives into dialogue with ideologies of gender race ethnicity nationality class and religion addressing the situation of women as both perpetrators and targets of torture and the possibilities of a dialogue between feminist and queer politics to confront securitized regimes of torture This book explores the relationship in which social and cultural texts stand with respect to legacies of colonialism and neo imperialism in a world of transnational feminist solidarities against postcolonial wars on terror
