Chinese Cinderella Summary

Chinese Cinderella is the true memoir of Adeline Yen Mah's childhood, describing her life up until she is fourteen years old. Adeline is born to a wealthy family in Tianjin, China, as their fifth child. Her mother dies due to birth complications and her family thus views Adeline as "bad luck" and a curse upon them. One year later, Adeline's Father marries a half-Chinese, half-French woman whom the family calls Niang. Niang despises the five children from her husband's first marriage and heavily favors her own two biological children, Fourth Brother and Little Sister. Denied love from her parents as well as most of her siblings, Adeline relies on the affections of her Aunt Baba, Grandfather Ye Ye, and Grandmother Nai Nai, all of whom live with the family. Beginning in her first week of kindergarten, Adeline proves herself to be a talented scholar, earning the honour of top student nearly every week.

Most of China is occupied by Japan, including Tianjin. Father, a businessman, faces increased pressure from the Japanese rulers to make them his business partners, something he does not wish to do. One day, Father disappears, having fled to Shanghai. Niang and her son, Fourth Brother, follow suit some months later, also disappearing without explanation. The stepchildren and Niang's infant daughter live under the care of their grandparents and thrive in the absence of Niang. However, Nai Nai dies of a stroke some months later. Six weeks after her death, Father arrives secretly in Tianjin (still fearing the Japanese) to take his children back to Shanghai with him, though Third Brother and Little Sister will remain for a few months in Tianjin with Ye Ye and Aunt Baba. When the children arrive in Shanghai and reach Father's new house, they are shocked by its luxurious, expensive decorations. Immediately, Niang explains the new rules of the household to them: All of the stepchildren will share rooms on the third floor while Father and Niang, as well as Niang's favoured children, will have their own luxurious rooms on the second floor; the stepchildren are not allowed to have friends over to their house nor go to friends' houses; the stepchildren must only use the backdoor by the servants' quarters. The stepchildren are embittered by this as they realize Niang has made them into second-class citizens in their own home.
