Personalizing the High School Experience for Each Student Joseph DiMartino, John H. Clarke, 2008-04-21 Why is it that so many students see high school as a prison sentence to be endured rather than a time to learn and grow According to DiMartino and Clark many high school students feel invisible and isolated They don t see the relevance of what they are being taught and they don t see how their classes are preparing them for success as adults This book offers a new vision for high schools a vision that puts students at the center of their learning Personalized high schools engage students by allowing them to plan and develop their own pathways through school based on their talents interests and aspirations The book describes six promising practices that are emerging in high schools

Guided Personalized Learning Teachers act as advisors to small groups of students over two to six years to review personal learning plans assist in course selection and discover opportunities in the community Personal Learning Plans Students meet regularly with parents advisors mentors and peers to review progress and plan next steps Personalized Teaching Teachers differentiate instruction to allow students to explore different aspects of the subject and produce authentic work that shows their understanding Community Based Learning Active involvement in the community helps clarify a student s purpose and defines the steps necessary to achieve successful adult roles Personalized Assessment Rather than grades and tests scores the work itself portfolios exhibitions and student led conferences shows what the students have learned Personalizing school systems Some schools are moving past the Carnegie unit and focusing instead on helping each student achieve specified competencies often through learning experiences that the students themselves have helped design These six practices can improve learning for all students by engaging them in shaping their own high school experience and discovering how the academic skills they learn in school can have meaning in the world they will negotiate as adults      The College Handbook College Entrance Examination Board,1998 Presents information on 4 year colleges and universities and 2 year community colleges and technical schools      The College Handbook, 1996 College Board,College Board Staff,1995-08 For over 50 years students and their parents have relied on this handbook for complete facts about colleges throughout the country The only one volume guide to all accredited colleges both two and four year schools the guide provides up to date information on admission policies acceptance rates financial aid campus life majors and more      The College Handbook, 1997 College Board,College Board Staff,1996 Updated annually to guarantee the most up to date information possible The College Handbook tells students what they need to know about admission policies application deadlines required tests acceptance rates majors enrollment faculty sports fees campus life and more and provides names addresses and phone and fax numbers for the directors of admissions      Four-Year Colleges 2009 Peterson's,2008-06 Complete and up to date information on academics faculty research tuition sports and campus life at four year colleges in the U S and Canada      Profiles of American Colleges -- 2008 Barron's Educational Series,2008-07-01 Up to date facts and figures on enrollments tuition and fees academic programs campus environment available financial aid and much more make the 28th edition of Profiles of American Colleges America s most authoritative data source for college bound high school students their parents and high school guidance counselors More than 1 650 accredited four year colleges are profiled An interactive CD ROM enclosed with the directory guides students to specific schools when they enter details describing their personal academic plans and aptitudes In addition to the above cited information each college profile gives details on Admission requirements Library and computer facilities Admissions procedures for freshmen Campus safety and security Thumbnail descriptions of faculty Requirements for a degree Athletic facilities Extracurricular activities E mail addresses College fax numbers and web sites Admissions Contacts and much more Schools are rated according to Barron s well known competitiveness scale from Noncompetitive to Most Competitive Unlike some other publications Barron s refrains from the unreliable practice of ranking colleges on a first through last basis The book s tinted pages section presents a quick reference Index of College Majors that lists all available major study programs at each school Also profiled are many excellent colleges in Canada and several other countries as well as brief profiles of religious colleges and American colleges based in foreign countries      U.
