 to avoid Bringing the English Curriculum to Life David Didau, 2024-04-12 Bringing the English Curriculum to Life builds on David Didau's groundbreaking book Making Meaning in English by showing how the principles of the original book can be applied in schools and classrooms Drawing together experiences of designing teaching supporting and assessing English across the schools within Ormiston Academies Trust OAT this book demonstrates what an ambitious coherently sequenced broad and balanced English curriculum with successful adaption for students with SEND can look like in practice Designed around the explicit teaching of the powerful conceptual knowledge students need to master the discipline the book offers a fully resourced English curriculum packed with teaching suggestions and examples of high quality practice Covering intent implementation and assessment and outlining in detail what is included in each module for KS3 and 4 the curriculum can be adopted in its entirety but is also flexible enough for departments to take modules and slot them into their own curriculum

 Jacobsson, Elżbieta Korolczuk, 2017-06-01 In much social scientific literature Polish civil society has been portrayed as weak and passive This volume offers a much needed corrective challenging this characterization on both theoretical and empirical grounds and suggesting new ways of conceptualizing civil society to better account for events on the ground as well as global trends such as neoliberalism migration and the renewal of nationalist ideologies Focusing on forms of collective action that researchers have tended to overlook the studies gathered here show how public discourse legitimizes certain claims and political actions as true civil society while others are too often dismissed Taken together they critique a model of civil society
