Teaching Discipline-Specific Literacies in Grades 6-12 Vicky I. Zygouris-Coe, 2014-10-30 Comprehensive, timely and relevant, this text offers an approach to discipline-specific literacy instruction that is aligned with the Common Core State Standards and the needs of teachers, students and secondary schools across the nation. It is essential that teachers know how to provide instruction that both develops content and literacy knowledge and skills and aims at reducing student achievement gaps. Building on the research-supported premise that discipline-specific reading instruction is key to achieving these goals, this text provides practical guidance and strategies for prospective and practicing content area teachers and other educators on how to prepare all students to succeed in college and the workforce. Pedagogical features in each chapter engage readers in digging deeper and in applying the ideas and strategies presented in their own contexts. Classroom Life: real 6-12 classroom scenarios and interviews with content area teachers. Common Core State Standards Connections: College, Career and Workforce Connections. Applying Discipline-Specific Literacies: Think Like an Expert habits of thinking and learning specific to each discipline. Digital Literacies. Differentiating Instruction. Reflect and Apply Questions. Extending Learning Activities. The Companion Website includes Lesson plan resources, Annotated links to video files, Annotated links to additional resources and information, Glossary, Flashcards For Instructors. Teaching History and the Changing Nation State Robert Guyver, 2016-02-11 Capitalizing on the current movement in history education to nurture a set of shared methodologies and perspectives, this text looks to break down some of the obstacles to transnational understanding in history, focusing on pedagogy to embed democratic principles of inclusion, inquiry, multiple interpretations and freedom of expression. Four themes which are influencing the broadening of history education to a globalized community of practice run throughout: Teaching History and the Changing Nation State, pedagogy, democracy and dialogue, the nation, politics and transnational dimensions, landmarks with questions, shared histories, shared commemorations and re-evaluating past denials. The contributors use the same pedagogical language in a global debate about history teaching and learning to break down barriers to search for shared histories and mutual understanding. They explore contemporary topics including The Gallipoli Campaign in World War I, transformative approaches to a school history curriculum and the nature of federation.
