The UN Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women Marsha A.

Freeman, Christine Chinkin, Beate Rudolf, 2012-01-26 This volume is the first comprehensive commentary on the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination against Women and its Optional Protocol. The Convention is a key international human rights instrument and the only one exclusively addressed to women. It has been described as the United Nations landmark treaty in the struggle for women's rights. The Commentary describes the application of the Convention through the work of its monitoring body, the Committee on the Elimination of Discrimination against Women. It comprises detailed analyses of the Preamble and each article of the Convention and of the Optional Protocol. It also includes a separate chapter on the cross-cutting substantive issue of violence against women. The sources relied on are the treaty language and the general recommendations concluding observations and case law under the Optional Protocol through which the Committee has interpreted and applied the Convention. Each chapter is self-contained but the Commentary is conceived of as an integral whole. The book also includes an Introduction which provides an overview of the Convention and its embedding in the international law of human rights.

Harmonized Guidelines on Reporting Under the International Human Rights Treaties, Including Guidelines on a Common Core Document and Treaty-specific Targeted Documents, 2005 Non-discrimination and Equality in the View of the UN Human Rights Treaty Bodies Wouter Vandenhoele, 2005 As part of a larger research project on harmonisation and convergence among UN human rights treaty bodies, scrutinises convergence and divergence, communality and related issues. Focuses on five Committees: The Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Racial Discrimination (CERD), the Human Rights Committee (HRC), the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights (CESCR), the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), and the Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC).

International Human Rights Law Olivier De Schutter, 2019-09-12 Fully updated to cover topics such as climate change, trade, and business activities while retaining the original style and structure.

Economic, Social and Cultural Rights in International Law Manisuli Ssenyonjo, 2009-07-03 The effective promotion, protection, and fulfilment of economic, social, and cultural (ESC) rights is an important but under-explored component of international human rights law, of which ESC rights form an essential part. They are fundamental to the dignity of every person. At the international level, ESC rights are protected in several international instruments, the most comprehensive being the International Covenant on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights, the Covenant ratified by a majority of States. However, claims of violations of ESC rights are treated less seriously. This book subjects ESC rights protected in the Covenant to a deeper analysis in light of the practice of the Committee on Economic, Social and Cultural Rights while taking into account other relevant sources of ESC rights at national, regional, and international levels. It also analyses key issues relevant to ESC rights with particular emphasis on various themes including State obligations non State actor s obligations women s ESC rights domestic protection of ESC rights and State reservations to ESC rights The book further makes a thorough examination of the rights to work health and education By so doing it demonstrates that ESC rights are justiciable and must not be marginalised The book also brings together a collection of essential materials on ESC rights needed to understand and analyse the subject Written by an international human rights scholar this timely work will be of value to all those interested in human rights and international law

Human Rights in Crisis Alice Bullard,2017-05-15 This volume expands our understanding of the pursuit of human rights during the era of the War on Terror The threat to human rights both in the United States and among detainees in US governed detention facilities created a widely perceived crisis in human rights This text explores the broad and complicated ramifications of crisis by looking comparatively at societies in the present era and looking back at the historical and legal foundations of human rights Human Rights in Crisis contains an element of hope derived from a conviction that the pursuit of human rights happens on many fronts and in many ways around the globe that a retreat from human rights in the United States does not necessarily signal a global retreat The essays here include perspectives from History Anthropology and Legal Studies with a resulting interdisciplinary portrait of the complexities of pursuing human rights in wartime

Migration and Human Rights Ryszard Cholewinski,Paul F. A. Guchteneire,Antoine Pecoud,2009-11-26 Provides an overview of the UN Convention on Migrant Workers Rights including its history content and implementation

Australia and Human Rights Caroline Fleay,2020-05-22 The Howard government s term in office in Australia from 1996 to 2007 is often portrayed as one where Australia retreated from its international human rights obligations Throughout this era a range of government policies attracted much criticism for downplaying or ignoring human rights Less attention has been given to the human rights policies of previous Australian governments and the heritage they provided for the Howard government Situating the policies of the Howard government within those of previous Australian governments provides a greater understanding of human rights in Australia This book examines human rights policies in Australia in three key areas human rights in Australia China relations responses to asylum seekers and refugees and engagement with human rights at the United Nations These areas highlight where the Howard government clearly deviated from some of the more positive human rights policies of its predecessors The book also challenges the perception that Australia has a proud history of human rights policy by revealing where the Howard government continued or revived policies of earlier Australian governments that were not consistent with international human rights standards Such an understanding of human rights in Australian policy is imperative for informed analysis and debate on current and future policy trends

The set generally Since the publication of its first edition in 1950 the Annual Review of United Nations Affairs has stood as the authoritative resource for scholars students and practitioners researching the latest developments of that august body From the insightful introduction prepared each year by a distinguished expert on UN affairs to the full text presentation of reports and resolutions and the helpful subject index ARUNA provides a practical tour of each year's UN actions and debates The expert selection of documents by Joachim Muller and Karl Sauvant and the topic based organization of those documents make any researcher's task much easier than the vast searching sorting and pruning required by the UN's website The series topic based organization of the materials and subject index lend invaluable guidance to all researchers ARUNA presents comprehensive documentation of the work of the UN on an annual basis starting in September of each year with the beginning of the regular sessions of the General Assembly Coverage of the UN's key organs is provided including the General Assembly the Security Council the Economic and Social Council ECOSOC the International Court of Justice and the UN Secretariat In addition selected reports of intergovernmental bodies and expert groups are included Solely official UN documentation is used ARUNA occupies a special place in the publications on the work of the UN as it allows readers to obtain an overview of the principal developments in its key organs This makes it an important reference source for policy makers and academic researchers b The 2009 2010 volumes This year's edition continues to focus on the world financial crisis and the reaction of the United Nations and the international financial system to that crisis The Overview to this year's edition written by Joachim Muller and Karl Sauvant examines the changing role of the United Nations and explores ways in which the management of the financial crisis has impacted that role The Introduction to this year's edition also examines the effects of this crisis this Introduction is drawn from the Report of the Commission of Experts of the President of the United Nations General Assembly on Reforms of the International Monetary and Financial System as well as a slightly edited version of a Preface to that report written by Professor Joseph E Stiglitz The Introduction discusses the findings of the Commission and proposes the creation of a new institution a Global Economic Coordination Council which would be supported by an International Panel of Experts with a geographically diverse membership that would represent the interests of emerging and developing countries as well as those of developed countries Dr Joseph E Stiglitz who served as Chairman of the Commission and wrote the Preface to the Commission's Report holds joint professorships at Columbia University's Economics Department and its Business School He is also Co founder and Co President of the Initiative for Policy Dialogue From 1997 to 2000 he was the World Bank's Senior Vice President for Development Economics and Chief Economist From 1995 to 1997 he served as Chairman of the U S

Council of Economic Advisers and as a member of President Clinton's cabinet. From 1993 to 1995 he was a member of the Council of Economic Advisers. He was previously a professor of economics at Stanford, Princeton, Yale, and All Souls College. Dr. Stiglitz is also a leading scholar of the economics of the public sector and was awarded the Nobel Prize in Economics in 2001, in addition to the American Economic Association's biennial John Bates Clark Award in 1979. His recent publications include Freefall: America, Free Markets, and the Sinking of the World Economy (2010), Making Globalization Work (2006), Fair Trade for All (2005), and Globalization and its Discontents (2002). The 2009-2010 volumes of ARUNA therefore also devote considerable attention to the financial crisis as well as other international crises. Among the documents in the 2009-2010 volumes are the complete General Assembly resolutions as well as the Report and Resolutions of the Security Council and the Economic and Social Council. ECOSOC Annual Reports of note include reports of the United Nations Children's Fund (UNICEF), the UN Development Programme, and UN Population Fund; the UN High Commissioner for Human Rights; the UN High Commissioner for Refugees; the UN Relief and Works Agency for Palestine Refugees in the Near East; and the World Food Programme. Mr. Muller and Dr. Sauvant have also selected progress reports on key peacekeeping, peace building, and political missions, including those for Afghanistan, the Democratic Republic of the Congo, Haiti, Iraq, the Middle East, Sudan, and West Africa.

Volume II of this volume contains the following: Chapter 1, General Assembly Sixty-fourth Session, continued; 3 Resolutions Adopted by the General Assembly at Its Sixty-fourth Session, continued; Resolutions 64/104 through 64/199; d. Guest Authors of previous years' editions. Each annual edition of ARUNA is introduced by a Guest Author, a distinguished expert on UN affairs who highlights the outstanding themes of the year in review. Together with an overview provided by the editors, this introduction is intended to facilitate access to the material and, above all, to make it easier for users of ARUNA to see the forest for the trees. This year's ARUNA includes excerpts from the Report of the Commission of Experts of the President of the United Nations General Assembly on Reforms of the International Monetary and Financial System (21 Sept. 2009) and from a slightly edited version of a Preface to that report written by Professor Joseph E. Stiglitz. However, the roster of distinguished experts who have contributed this introduction in the past is also worthy of mention: Jose Antonio Ocampo (ARUNA 2008-2009 edition), Professor Jose Antonio Ocampo is Co-President of the Initiative for Policy Dialogue. He is also Professor in the School of International and Public Affairs and Fellow of the Committee on Global Thought at Columbia University. Professor Ocampo previously held the positions of Under Secretary General of the United Nations for Economic and Social Affairs, Executive Secretary of the United Nations Economic Commission for Latin America and the Caribbean, and Minister of Finance, Agriculture, and Planning of Colombia. In 2009, he was a member of the Commission of Experts of the President of the United Nations General Assembly on Reforms of the International Monetary and Financial System. Professor Ocampo is also the author of numerous books and articles on macroeconomics, policy, and theory, economic development, international trade, and economic history. His recent publications include Stability with Growth: Macroeconomics.
