

Unit One – Culminating Task

For this unit task, students will be asked to collect twelve (12) photographs that tell the story of Canada between 1900 and 1929. The photographs will be four (4) photographs for each of the strands of the unit: Big Events, Important Places, Important People / Groups. Each photograph will have caption explaining how the photograph relates to the unit.

Gathering the Photographs

Using the handouts in your portfolio, you should look for photographs that fit under the headings: Big Events, Important Places, Important People / Groups.

Make sure the photographs you are using are Canadian. Ask for help if you aren't sure.

Arranging the Photographs

There are a number of ways you can organize your photographs.

You could put the pictures into a Word / Google Doc and place the caption under each photograph.

You could create a power point presentation with a picture on each slide.

You could use a Publisher template that is picture focused.

Use the program you feel most comfortable with.

Submitting Your Project

You will submit your project to a dropbox on the HUB.

Sharing Your Learning

After the projects are submitted, we will spend some time sharing what we have learned.

These are NOT formal presentations. We will sit together and have you identify what you think is the most important photograph in your project and why.

Deadline: The project must be submitted to the dropbox by
