Importing Faith Glyn J. Ackerley, 2016-07-28 Many twenty first century evangelical charismatics in Britain are looking for a faith that works They want to experience the miraculous in terms of healings and Godsent financial provision Many have left the mainstream churches to join independentcharismatic churches led by those who are perceived to have special insights and to teach principles that will help believers experience the miraculous But all is not rosy in this promised paradise and when people are not healed or they remain poor they are often told that it is because they did not have enough faith This study discovers the origin of the principles that are taught by some charismatic leaders Glyn Ackerley identifies them as the same ideas that are taught by the positive confession health wealth and prosperity movement originating in the United States The origins of the ideas are traced back to New Thought metaphysics and its background philosophies of subjective idealism and pragmatism These principles were imported into the UK through contact between British leaders and those influenced by American word of faith teachers Glyn Ackerley explains the persuasiveness of such teachers by examining case studies suggesting their miracles may well have socialand psychological explanations rather than divine origins Internet Drama and Mystery Television Series, 1996-2014 Vincent Terrace, 2014-11-26 Created around the world and available only on the Web internet television series are independently produced mostly low budget shows that often feature talented but unknown performers Typically financed through online crowd funding they are produced with borrowed equipment and volunteer casts and crews and viewers find them through word of mouth or by chance The second in a first ever set of books cataloging Internet television series this volume covers in depth the drama and mystery genres with detailed entries on 405 shows from 1996 through July 2014 In addition to casts credits and story lines each entry provides a website commentary and episode descriptions Index of performers and personnel are included Episode One: Lights, Camera, Impact!
