

Faulkner's "A Rose for Emily": Analysis of the Plot

Topic: Literature | Words: 630 | Pages: 4

A plot is a series of events in a story. The plot in the short story "A Rose for Emily" is well-developed. A plot must be chronological or non-chronological; chronological means the events happened in order of their occurrence. Non-Chronological implies that there were regressions into the past from time to time or for the entire story. This short story is non-chronological because there are many flashbacks. For example, the story starts with Emily's funeral then goes back to the past where the reader learns about her life. Flashback is when the narrator tells a story that happened in the past without coming back to the present until the end of the story or not at all. A plot analysis must incorporate a description of the rate of flow, expositions, crises, epiphanies, weaknesses, and strengths of a story.

The rate of revelation was slow; details clogged the action, and the reader kept waiting for the action to continue. In addition, the story contains winding descriptions about things before the punchline. For instance, when Emily has been laid to rest and the town is eager to discover the mysteries of Emily's house, men have to break into the mystery room; a whole paragraph describing the room in detail irritates an impatient reader.

Exposition is the information the reader receives when the story opens. It is only the information that is going on at the very beginning, including what is happening, the setting, and the characters involved only at the beginning. The reader is introduced into the story with a funeral of the main character, Miss Emily; her Negro domestic help is introduced, and
