gripping history that plumbs the extraordinary stories of American relief and rescue workers during World War II Long before their country officially joined the war American aid workers were active in rescue efforts across Europe Two such Americans were Martha and Waitstill Sharp who were originally sent to Prague as part of a relief effort but turned immediately to helping Jews and dissidents after the 1939 invasion by Germany They were not the only ones Renowned historian Deb rah Dwork follows the story of rescue workers in five major cities as the refugee crisis expanded to Vilna Shanghai Marseille and Lisbon Followed by Nazi agents spiriting people across borders they learned secrecy Others negotiated with government representatives like Laura Margolis who worked with the Japanese to get enough food and warm shelter for the refugees in Shanghai Yet the women also often faced lack of support from their agencies if part of a couple they fought to get paid even at a low salary despite working as long and hard as their husbands Moving and revelatory Saints and Liars illuminates the unpredictable circumstances and often fast changing historical events with which these aid workers contended while revealing the moral questions they encountered and the devastating decisions they had to make Drawing on a multitude of archival documents from letters to diaries and memos Dwork offers us a rare glimpse into the lives of individuals who at times with their organizations backing but sometimes against their directives sought to help people find safe haven from persecution      Office Management Series American Management Association, 1930      Bulletin American Society for Testing Materials, 1919 Vol 12 includes under the same cover the society's year book for 1912
